Response: (Response as Redacted sent by service)

With regard to HBC_FOI_2018850 response to your earlier request, ("We cannot assist you as we do not hold replies from neighbours/consultees back that far as they are not part of the planning file. We keep only application form, certificate, plans, officer report and decisions.") you have made the following request:

Can you let me know if this is policy for all planning application?

Our Response: All records held are available to view on the Planning Database of the Council's website, including the application form, drawings, Decision Notice, and officer's report.

Can you provide me with the policy that defines how this information is managed and the specific clauses that relates to may request.

Our Response: Currently there is no policy in place.

Where each of the letters in question receive in paper form or electronically?

Our Response: We do not hold this information.

If received in paper were they ever scanned and saved or shared electronically?

Our Response: We do not hold this information.

If received in paper, when were they destroyed and how?

Our Response: We do not hold this information.
